

KISBEY GAS PLANT

Located southeast of Regina, Saskatchewan the Kisbey Gas Plant provides gas gathering, compression and sweetening for area producers.

The gas is gathered through 22 km of pipelines, the sales gas is delivered through the TransGas Transmission System and liquids are trucked out.

ATCO Midstream offers competitive processing solutions to area producers and provides an expedient and economical tie in for their gas production.

FACILITY SPECIFICATIONS

LOCATION:	05-13-08-06W2M
PROCESSES:	Gas Gathering Inlet compression Amine sweetening Refrigeration
LICENSED CAPACITY:	56 103m ³ /day (2 mmcf/d)
INLET PRESSURE:	105kPa (15 psi)
DELIVERY PRESSURE:	6895 kPa (1000 psi)
DELIVERY POINT:	TransGas Meter Station

